
Ottawa, Rideau Lakes and Kingston

From Canadian Railway and Marine World/Canadian Transportation - showing date and page number

01-Jul-1913

Page 245

Press reports state that financial arrangements for the construction of this projected railway are being made. It will be 125 miles long, from Ottawa to Kingston, passing through Smiths Falls, with a branch to Perth and Lanark. The maximum gradient is 0.7%.