

Local Railway Items from Ottawa Papers - Ogdensburgh and Rouses Point

Saturday 28/09/1850 Bytown Packet Ogdensburgh and Rouses Point

It is announced that the Ogdensburgh and Rouses Point Road will be finished and ready for the passenger train from Rouse's Point to Ogdensburgh, before the first day of next month. Only thirteen miles of the whole road remain unfinished and the rail is being laid with despatch. For strength, workmanship, durability, and easy grade - for directness of road, superiority of construction, and economical outlay, says the Ogdensburgh Beacon, perhaps there is no road in the United States surpasses it - Transcript.
